Policy for Integration

Integrative Medicine –

An approach to medical care that recognizes the benefit of combining conventional therapies with complementary therapies that have been shown to be safe and effective. Integrative medicine tries to address the physical, emotional, social, spiritual, and environmental factors that can affect a person's health and well-being. The focus of Integrative medicine is about wellness, vitality and healing, rather than focusing just on the disease. The integrative medicine is like a partnership of consultants of different systems of medicine, which guides and advises patients regarding treatment options. Together, the consultants and the patient decide on the best plan of action.

Objective: To provide treatment Integrative medicine service to mankind by integrating AYUSH and Modern medicine with holistic approach.

Scope of policy: With objective to develop Tertiary Care Hospital Facility, Seth Govindaji Raoji Ayurved College with Hospital Solapur with an intention to provide preventive, promotive, therapeutic medical services, Life style counselling, Yoga, Diet advice and Stress management and creating awareness about

The Model of Integration in Integrative Medical Services Units - is Co-location of the consultants of both systems of medicine.

Patients -Referred from existing OPD / Integration Unit Consultation

Treatment - Cafeteria Model, in which the patient can choose

1. We are pleased to offer you an honorary appointment with this Trust. The appointment is to enable you to carry out the necessary OPD consultation, operations and procedures.
2. Your remuneration shall be as per the Hospital policy for Honorary Consultants payment and the percentage of payment as mutually decided.
3. The period of appointment covered will be till further Notice and your work during this period will be part-time and intermittent.
4. Similarly the pattern of hours worked in any week will vary according to the requirements. The number and distribution of hours will be a matter for mutual agreement between you and our Hospital Clinical Staff. You will of course be covered by the Working Time Regulations and will not be expected to follow other than standard procedures in respect of working time.
5. Since the appointment is contractual, this contract carries no entitlement to paid holidays, bank holidays, sick pay etc.
6. It will be expected that you carry out your work in a manner which is safe and absent from risk to your own health and that of any other person who may be affected by your actions or omissions. It is also expected that you will co-operate with the Institute in complying with any relevant statutory regulation imposed by the Institute. Whilst on Hospital premises you must comply with the requirements of the Health & Safety.
7. During the course of your work you may have access to information concerning the Hospital's staff, policies, finances or patients, which is strictly confidential. It is a condition of your appointment that in no circumstances will such information be passed on or discussed with any unauthorised person. A breach of confidentiality during this contract would result in its termination.
8. Please sign and return this letter by way of confirmation of your agreement to the terms on which the appointment is made.
9. The offer and the acceptance of it should together constitute a contract between two parties.

We wish you all the best.

6. It will be expected that you carry out your work in a manner which is safe and absent from risk to your own health and that of any other person who may be affected by your actions or omissions. It is also expected that you will co-operate with the Institute in complying with any relevant statutory regulation imposed by the Institute. Whilst on Hospital premises you must comply with the requirements of the Health & Safety.
7. During the course of your work you may have access to information concerning the Hospital's staff, policies, finances or patients, which is strictly confidential. It is a condition of your appointment that in no circumstances will such information be passed on or discussed with any unauthorised person. A breach of confidentiality during this contract would result in its termination.
8. Please sign and return this letter by way of confirmation of your agreement to the terms on which the appointment is made.
9. The offer and the acceptance of it should together constitute a contract between two parties.

We wish you all the best.
